Three big rugby nations head to Murrayfield this November. Samoa, Australia and World Champions, New Zealand are in town to face a resurgent Scotland, Gregor Townsend's first home test as national team coach will be to chase victory against the Southern Hemisphere elite. Don't miss this unique chance to be a part of the action as Scotland clash with two of the world's finest teams, courtesy of Scottish Rugby Hospitality.

Our guest speakers bring the usual fun and games to the Thistle Suite, with an ever-changing array of world renowned rugby guests offering an insight into the game. In the very heart of BT Murrayfield, with unrivalled seats, it really is the very best way to see the game.
